

32ND NATIONAL NARROW GAUGE CONVENTION

SEATTLE, WASHINGTON

SEPTEMBER 12-15, 2012

Modular Layout Group Registration

The Seattle 2012 National Narrow Gauge Convention welcomes any narrow gauge-oriented modular or sectional display layout group to exhibit their layout at the Meydenbauer Center. If you'd like to participate, we will offer one complimentary registration for each twenty (20) square feet of layout, up to six registrations for any single group. The complimentary registrations will not cover the added cost of any extra fare trips or events. One electrical power connection will be provided at no cost to each group.

This form must be included with the layout group's individual registrations. All group members should fill out individual registration forms in order to receive registration materials, and to sign up for an excursion or to order shirts. Include a note on the individual registration forms that the individual is part of a modular or display layout group. If possible, include all registrations with this form.
